

Dear Ms Mouritsen,

My name is Jessica Angus and i am a 29 year old social worker living in Columbus Ohio. The purpose of this letter is to voice my displeasure with the sale of the parcels of public land in the Wayne National Forest. These acres are a valuable resource for us, with the survival of the area's abundant natural resources being my highest priority. The fact that it is public land that is allegedly being held safe in the interest of nature only makes the situation look worse. I have attached a list of these parcels to make sure that you are aware of what exactly i am protesting. The money that will be brought in is short sighted and will be vastly outweighed by the potential risks, from noise to damage to the earth to damage to the air we breathe. Again, i strongly reiterate my displeasure of the sale of these 1600 acres and any others in the WNF, our future is too important to gamble with for a few profits now.

Thanks

Jessica Angus
